

Kesko Corporation to host an investor event on 4 June 2024

Kesko will be hosting an investor afternoon on Tuesday, 4 June 2024, in order to provide an update on the company's strategy, businesses and drivers for growth and profitability. The event will include presentations by the President and CEO Jorma Rauhala and other members of Group Management Board.

Kesko welcomes institutional investors, analysts and media representatives in person at its K-Kampus headquarters in Kalasatama, Helsinki (street address Työpajankatu 12).

All interested parties can follow the event via webcast in real time or as a recording. The event will be held in English. The event invitation and agenda as well as instructions for registration will be published closer to the event.
